Would Die. Saves Herself, Also Young Girl Whose Troubles Were Similar to Hers

Clarksville, Tenn.-Mrs. H. L. Mason, of this place, writes: "I want to write you a few lines in regard to your medicine, Cardul, the woman's tente.

Before my marriage I lived in Evansville, Ind. I suffered very much with womanly trouble. I thought at times. that I would nearly die with pains in my stomach, and backache.

I saw your medicine advertised, and sent and got a bottle. The first bottle helped me, and I haven't been bothered with any of my old troubles since.

After my marriage, I lived in Mt. girls suffered like I did. I told them to give her Cardul, the woman's toric, as it would help her, and it certainly did,

I will surely recommend Cardul to all women, for I think it is a good medicine for all kinds of womanly trouble." If you are suffering from any of the allments peculiar to weak women, such as headache, backache, sideache, nervousness, sleeplessness, etc., we urge you to give Cardul, the woman's tonic,

It should surely do for you, what it has done for thousands of others. In the past half century, who suffered with similar troubles.

Begin taking Cardul teday. Your druggist sells it.

smart feature. The negligee appearance is not only attractive, but secures a degree of comfort unattainable by the close-fitting waist.

It is a mistake to suppose that shirt waists have gone out of fashion. They not only remain popular, but many are the new notes both of material and construction which are shown in summer blouses. Nowadays women realize that the summer sewing must not be delayed till the bot weather is upon us. This time must be left free to be spent out of doors,

Among the essentials for every woman, whether riph or poor, who would be comfortable during this period, for the same atmospheric conditions are felt in cottage and mansion alike, is an unlimited number of cool, suitable waists. These may be as dainty as can be afforded, but not too fragile to
